The 1967 ARCHER is presented to you with the anticipation of renewing your memories of the most important moments of this school year. Whether your interest lies in music, sports, scholarship, organizations, or extra-curricular activities, we have tried to represent it here in a picture story using these areas as the subjects.

FROM THE SUPERINTENDENT'S DESK

The 1966-67 school year has been a changing year for the Antwerp Schools. We have been involved with many meetings on county wide reorganization as well as several curriculum changes--Business Office Education and Diversified Cooperative Training.

Several Physical changes occurred: seven new elementary classrooms, a remodeled bus garage for industrial arts and a newly remodeled Junior High Science room.

Senior high students have had to rise earlier due to change in dual routing of buses.

The Class of '67 will be long remembered with the achievements in academic subjects, citizenship, and athletics they have attained.

Dale Adams
Superintendent

Principal

FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

Each year as commencement ends I often wonder if our young graduates are properly prepared to meet the challenges of this ever changing world. Knowledge is a great well that every student drinks from during his years of learning. The capacity to absorb knowledge differs with the individual. Wisdom is that ability to use knowledge as a means of attaining desired goals. Success is the personal reward which comes from reaching our goals. If we set our goals high and honestly work to attain these ideals, life will have a full and rich meaning.

Beginning

Once upon a time there was a fine Coach Hurley who instilled that "desire" in his players.

Before each game they would "warm up."

Then, in the huddle they went over last-minute plans.

Big Jack could be counted on to get us that ball.

Jack also could score.

Hal could get rebounds!

Doug liked to score.

Our team just loved to get that ball.

My, how Doug liked to score.

And after the hard-fought game, sparkplug Steve Farnsworth shows his teammates his bruises. They are so sorry for Steve.

This story has a very happy ending. Our beloved Archers are victorious again.
